This Biedermeier style hotel is a new high end boutique hotel-museum with 4* stars located in an elite part of the city of Zagreb, yet in the immediate vicinity of the city center (5 minutes drive). The opening of this hotel is a continuation of the 175-year-old family catering tradition. The fundamental idea of the hotel is to preserve and transmit the "Zagreb flair" to its guests, as well as to future generations.

Intended for every lover of timeless ambience and tradition, the hotel offers 35 uniquely decorated accommodation units, of which two junior apartments. Carefully selected and restored antique furniture makes the entire interior original.

The walls of the hotel are decorated with more than 700 paintings, photographs and original newspaper articles that introduce every guest to the historical story of Zagreb and Croatia. Within the hotel there is a congress hall, a cafe, marvellous restaurant and a dental office.

This hotel is really something special, there is no second one like that in Zagreb. It has absolutely unique historical atmosphere which is preserved and cherished.

Note: There is possibility of expansion with adding 10 more rooms on the top floor.
